Laguna Mountains & Cuyamaca: New Year Weekend

Stonewall Peak Sunset • Garnet Peak Views • Winter Snow Country • Eagle Rock or Potato Chip Rock

Orange County • Cuyamaca Rancho State Park • Julian • Mount Laguna — 3-Day / 2-Night Trip

DEC 31, 2026 - JAN 2, 2027 • EASY-MODERATE HIKES • OPTIONAL STRENUOUS: POTATO CHIP ROCK

Trip Overview

A 3-day, 2-night New Year weekend in the San Diego mountains: sunset at Stonewall Peak on New Year's Eve, Garnet Peak and the Laguna Mountains on New Year's Day, and a choice of Eagle Rock or Potato Chip Rock on Day 3. Offered as a last-minute booking (75% / 25% payment).

What to Expect Over New Year

Holiday weekend: lodging in Julian fills early and holiday dates run higher. Days are short, with sunset around 4:50 PM.

Weather: cold, clear days with occasional snow on the ridges of Cuyamaca and the Laguna Mountains; Sunrise Highway and Hwy 79 may need chains. Pack layers, a warm hat and gloves, and traction cleats if snow or ice is forecast.

Day-by-Day Itinerary

Day 1, Thursday Dec 31 — Sunset at Stonewall Peak, Cuyamaca Rancho State Park

Driving: ~2.25-2.5 hrs to Cuyamaca (~110 mi), ~25 min on to Julian | Hiking/Trekking: ~3.8 mi RT, moderate

- Depart late morning for Cuyamaca Rancho State Park
- Stonewall Peak Trail (~3.8 mi RT, ~850 ft gain), timed to reach the summit for sunset (start the trail by about 2:30 PM)
- Carry headlamps for the descent; then check in at Julian and enjoy New Year's Eve
- Overnight: Julian (Night 1 of 2)

Check weather and trail conditions; ice is possible near the summit.
Meals: not included

Day 2, Friday Jan 1 — Garnet Peak, Laguna Mountains

Driving: ~1-1.5 hrs from Julian to Sunrise Highway | Hiking/Trekking: ~5 mi RT, moderate

- Drive Sunrise Highway to the Garnet Peak trailhead
- Garnet Peak (~5 mi RT, moderate): wide views over Anza-Borrego and the Salton Sea; snow possible
- Optional easy stroll in Big Laguna Meadow; return to Julian for apple pie
- Overnight: Julian (Night 2 of 2)

Meals: not included

Day 3, Saturday Jan 2 — Eagle Rock or Potato Chip Rock, then Home

Driving: ~40 min to Warner Springs or ~1.25 hrs to Poway, then ~2 hrs home | Hiking/Trekking: ~5-7.5 mi

- Choose one: Eagle Rock on the Pacific Crest Trail from Warner Springs (~5-6 mi RT, easy-moderate); or Potato Chip Rock (Mt. Woodson via Lake Poway, ~7.5 mi RT, ~2,100 ft gain, moderate-strenuous)
- Drive home to Orange County via I-15

Potato Chip Rock access and parking are managed by the City of Poway; confirm before you go.
Meals: not included

Driving times and trail distances are approximate. No meals are included on any day of this trip.

Final Payment	25% of trip cost	Thursday, December 17, 2026 (2 weeks before departure), non-refundable

Optional Extras & Points of Interest

- Strenuous extra: Cuyamaca Peak via Lookout Road / Azalea Spring (~6.5 mi RT, ~1,600 ft gain; snow possible)
- Moderate extras: Pacific Crest Trail out-and-back from the Laguna Mountains toward Pioneer Mail (6-10 mi RT)
- Julian: Main Street, apple pie, and orchards; Lake Cuyamaca
- Warner Springs and Lake Henshaw; Mt. Woodson and Lake Poway

Rate Notes

- Holidays: Peak holiday dates carry higher hotel rates and fill early, so lodging for Christmas week and New Year's is quoted at booking (expect roughly +15-25% on lodging).
- Roads: chains or closures may apply on Sunrise Highway and Hwys 79 and 78; check conditions before you go.
- Hotel rates are market estimates; book early, as weekends and holidays fill quickly.
- Rates are per person, in USD, before hotel taxes and resort fees; final pricing is confirmed once group size is set.
